

Connection Studio Guide/teacher

Purpose/Mission

Build relationships with kids and create a safe, nurturing and sacred space for our preschool-age kids to encounter and wonder about God.

Scope of Position

Using the Young Children in Worship curriculum, act as a guide/teacher who consistently leads children into a sacred space to encounter God's Spirit. Also as a Connection Studio team member build relationships with co-volunteers, and help assimilate and train new volunteers.

Position Duties

Prepare for the lesson by practicing the story 3-4x prior to teaching session.
Implement the teaching principles taught at the training session.
Communicate with studio directors and other team members the outcome of your teaching session (via notebook, blog or whatever medium indicated)

Gifts/skills

Good written and verbal communications skills, loving, patient, reliable
Solid organizational skills, encouraging, leadership abilities

Serving Dates/Times

Serve a minimum of 2 sessions a month
Approximately 2.5 hours a session + 1-2 hours a week for preparation
Serve on special occasions (Cxmas eve, Good Friday, etc.)

Reports to: Connection Studio Director(s)

Prerequisites

Completed the Young Children in Worship 14-hour training session*. (Cost $100) – (*If you are interested in this ministry, please contact the studio directors. They can help you visit the studio, observe, etc. and then you can work together to decide if this is a match and a commitment you want to make.)

Following Jesus and shadowing God's work, desiring to deepen that relationship

Attend Fusion regularly

Healthy relationships and community (satellite or another group)

WW owner (or headed that direction)

Training/mentoring

Complete and pass the Kids Application

Review the volunteer manual with mentor